Dear Brent,

In answer to your memorandum of 3 November 1973, I was happy to welcome Captain George Pickett to the Intelligence Resources Advisory Committee meeting on 5 November representing the National Security Council Staff. I have asked the IRAC Secretariat to get in touch with Colonel Kennedy and establish a regularized routing of relevant IRAC working papers.

Sincerely,

/s/ Bill

MEMORANDUM FOR

THE DIRECTOR OF CENTRAL INTELLIGENCE

SUBJECT: NSC Representative on Intelligence Resources
Advisory Committee (IRAC)

In order to maintain currency as to the allocation and employment of intelligence resources, it is requested that the NSC staff be represented at meetings of the IRAC and its working group and receive relevant working papers. Subject to your concurrence, NSC participation may be coordinated with the office of Colonel Richard T. Kennedy (395-4996).
